THE LIVER & SKIN, AND ALL DISEASES

for extraordinary cures, for the certificates of several physicians to be found in the books (which may be had gratis) accompanying the Product.

It has been used in hospitals and private practice,
and has had the singular fortune to be recommended

$500

RWARD.

THE above reward will be paid for such information as will lead to the detection and conviction of the scoundrel who basciously entered the DAILY NEWS OFFICE.

On Friday night, and killed, by hanging, Little "HARRY," a KING CHARLES' SPANIEL belonging to the subscriber.

112 W. H. CHANSTON.

We learn that the steamer Cannons will be put on the route between this city and Providence, in a few days, to run in connection with the Worcester Railroad; she will leave here at 5 a. m. and 2 p. m.; and arrive at 11 a. m. and 8 p. m.

Independence day passed off in New York without any unusual casualty. The liquor business appeared thriving, and there were fires both in New York and in Brooklyn.

Bristol was lit with Gas on the evening of the 4th, for the first time.

We regret to learn that our friend Gal. Fitzgerald, editor of the Philadelphia City News, is laid up with a sprained knee; come to Newport, Col., and you will speedily recover.

We learn by our exchanges that the 4th was very generally celebrated in all parts of the country.

The refreshing showers of the last two or three days have laid the dust finely, and greatly benefited vegetation.

The German Musical Society will commence their engagement for the season at the Ocean, Atlantic and Bellevue, the first of the week.

The Rev. James C. Richmond will officiate in Zion Church to-morrow.

Ik. Marvel, (Donald G. Mitchell,) has purchased the "Lloyd Place," near Westville, two miles from New Haven, and there Mr. Mitchell intends to make his permanent residence.—Hartford Times.

Mrs. Susan Decatur, relief of this gallant Commodore Decatur, lies dangerously ill at her residence in Georgetown, D. C.

The Cost of a Dress.—The robes worn by Archbishop Hughes at the dedication of St. Paul's Cathedral at Pittsburgh cost $3,000. So it is said in the Pittsburgh papers.

WASHINGTON ITEMS.—Secretary Dobbin is going to Virginia, for his health. The army order, concerning the his promotions, will be issued in a few days. Land Warrants continue to flow out in abundance. Secetary Alaray has received two 80 acre patches for services in the war of 1812.

GRAND WEDDING.—In the course of a couple of weeks, a grand wedding it is said, is to come off at the St. Nicholas Hotel. The bridegroom-to-be is a Louisiana planter, named Mitchell—reported very wealthy—and the bride-to-be is a daughter of Judge Conklin, formerly Judge of the Northern District of the State of New York, but more recently appointed Minister to Mexico. The St. Nicholas has been hired, at $2,000 per day, for four days, and 2,000 invitations have been issued. It is intended that this shall knock all former private matrimonial coming together into an "eternal smash" cooked hot. Make ready the ices and sherry cobs.—N. Y. Mirror.

NEW YORK LADIES.—A writer on America in an English periodical, says:

"We admired, as every one must, the pretty faces and figures of the New York ladies. But it is a pity they follow the abominable practice of chewing the gum of the spruce fir, which no doubt, is the cause of the early loss of their teeth. It is a most unbecoming habit. The jaw is kept in perpetual motion, like that of a cow running."

It is reported at Rome that ex-king Louis of Bavaria, Lola Montez's illustrious admirer, is about to marry the Countess Spaur, widow of the late Baron. This lady is the daughter of Count Giraud, and is renowned for having arranged the flight of Pius IX. in 1848, and carried him off to Gaeta.

FREE OF DEBT.—The State of Connecticut is free of debt and owns about $100,000 of bank stock, independent of its school fund, which amounts to $2,000,000. The Comptroller estimates the receipts in the ensuing year at $103,571 and the expenditures at $155,000.

BY TELEGRAPH.

Halifax, July 6, 1855.

The Royal mail steamship America, Capt. Long, arrived at this port yesterday (Wednesday) afternoon, and will be due at Boston at an early hour on Friday morning.

Her mails will doubtless reach New York on Friday afternoon.

The America brings advices from Liverpool to the 23d June, three days later than received by the Hermann.

The news is scanty but in the highest degree important.

The Allies had met with a serious check before Sebastianopol.

On the 18th of June, the French and English respectively attacked the Malakoff and Redan towers, but were both repulsed with great slaughter.

The details could not be looked for before the end of June, and in the meantime private advices of the most serious description were agitating the public mind.

According to one account the British loss alone was not short of four thousand, including among the killed General Campbell, and upward of seventy other officers.

Contradictory rumors prevailed, and it was thought that the above was somewhat exaggerated.

In the British Parliament, Mr. Roebuck had moved a vote of censure against the Ministry.

A large new French loan was to be immediately negotiated.

PHILADELPHIA, July 5.

The K. N. State Council now in session at Reading has divided, Gov. Johnson leading off for a northern party. A number of delegates are also organizing a State Council on the Philadelphia platform.—Gov. Gardner, of Mass., has written a letter to Gov. Johnson, urging Pennsylvania to join the eastern wing of the party.—There is much excitement among the members. The Council has repudiated the Philadelphia platform by striking out the 12th section.

SECOND DESPATCH.

READING, July 5.

The State Council to-day adopted the national platform. The Free Soilers and Abolitionists thereupon seceded.

BUNKER HILL.—A Yankee conveying an English gentleman round Boston, took him to Bunker Hill. They stood looking at the splendid shaft, when the Yankee said:

"This is the spot where Warren fell." "Ah!" paled the Englishman, evidently not posted up in local historical matters. "Did it 'urt 'im much?"

The native looked at him with the expression of fourteen 4th Julys in his countenance.

"Hurt him!" he exclaimed, "he was killed, sir!"

"Ah, 'e was, eh?" said the stranger, still eyeing the monument, and computing its height in his own mind, layer by layer.—"Well, I should think 'e would 'ave been 'urt, to fall so far."

An Green Catar.—One of those unaccountable and remarkable phenomena, which "those who go down to the sea in ships" so frequently witness, occurred during the passage of the Metropolitan from New York to San Francisco. Between the latitudes of 32deg S. and 27deg S. in the Pacific, a distance of about 360 miles, a perfect calm fell upon the ocean, which lasted for the space of four consecutive days. This occurred in the vicinity of where the well known southeast trades are generally found, and which help so much towards accomplishing the "track" passage of our clipper ships from the Eastern States to California. Capt. Smith states that during these fourteen days a lighted candle could have been kept exposed in the maintop. Not a breath of air disturbed the glassy surface of old Neptune's dominions, while the ship, motionless and silent, sat upon this silent sea.

As little as a painted ship, upon painted ocean.

St. Peter's church, at Rome, is the noblest pile of magnificence art in the world.—Grandeur, strength, and solidity float unshaken within its vaulted spaces, like clouds of lustre. The immensity of the size, the illustrious richness of the treasure that has been lavished upon its decoration by the enthusiastic prodigality of the Catholic world through successive centuries dwarfs man and the present, and leaves the soul open to sentiments of God and eternity. The eye, as it glances along column and archway, meets nothing but variegated marbles and gold, pictures vast in magnitude, transcendent in merit, the master-pieces of the world—the "Communion of St. Jerome," the "Transfiguration of Christ," and countless others—not of perishable canvas and oils, but wrought in mosaic, and fit to endure till Time itself shall perish.

A man with a modest appetite dined at a hotel, after eating the whole of a young pig, was asked if he would have some pudding. He said he didn't care much about pudding, but if they had another little hog he would be thankful for it.

A WHITE SWALLOW.—We have heard of white crows white blueberries, and the like; but a white swallow is rather a novel curiosity. Among five these birds which had taken their flight in the porch of a gentleman's house, two days since, two of them was noticed to be perfectly white. In every other respect he resembles his companions in size, form, and peculiar twiters of its species. But the fact of his being without mate would seem to show that he was considered an alien among the fraternity of swallows.—New Haven Register.

A KARD.

FROM THE
Matchless City Crier, Magical & Collector,
Metropolitan Bill Poster, MYSTERIOUS
News Manager.

THOMAS CUTTER,
Magnum Bonum, Fæstion.

ITUS publicly tender my thanks to the Honorable City Council, for reappointing me to my responsible office, which unfeels their just appreciation of my singular genius and merit as well as gratefully rewarding it in part for the reminiscences of my heroic services in the cause of our beloved country during the war of 1812, with England, in participating in that glorious event, the capture of a British cruiser, the Shropshire, and other patriotic exploits, which our country became invincible and immortal, by humbling the pride of old England, and restoring a blessed peace within our borders. Also tender my thanks to the good citizens of Newport, for their generous confidence and appointment, to whom I offer my professional services for a continuance in all the requirements of their military necessities, which nature and education have so happily adapted me. My stock in trade consists of a pair of number 10s and feet, a parrot tongue, a musical voice, a smiling phiz, and an honest heart, together with a merry Bell, which all are bound to hear and respect as "By Authority." I protest to be strictly neutral in politics, yet candidly confess to my friends and countrymen that I am decidedly opposed to all know Nothings, who cause me no such trouble in collecting small bills against them.

The nature of my business being wholly perambulatory, renders my locality (strictly speaking) to be locomotive and eccentric, whereby my patrons at times have trouble to find me, unless within the sound of my Bell. To obviate this difficulty I have made an arrangement with the Yankee on Trinity Church steet, which will always, in pleasant weather, point directly to where I may be found, and in storm weather directly opposite to the intelligent friends if not obvious, will remember this, and avoid mistakes. THOMAS CUTTER.
